In addition to understanding the What, Why and How of each principle, you learn how they apply more specifically to your own body. Additionally you learn how to modify exercises in case they don't work for you or your body.
Drop-in Rate (call to confirm space and reserve)	$32.00/class 55 mins	Level 2 Exercises: Intermediate Tempo: Moderate	Participants will learn exercises from the Intermediate repertoire on either the mat, reformer, and/or stability chair. Exercises from the beginner repertoire and the 5 basic principles should now be familiar.
Punch Cards (1 year exp.) Booked weekly  Call to check availability	8 Classes $240.00 5 Classes $150.00 *these classes can be booked up to two weeks in advance or your name can be added to a waitlist for future classes	Level 3 Exercises: Advanced Tempo: Fast	At this stage your passion for Pilates and optimal movement is obvious, your exercises are graceful and you are very familiar with the repertoire. In this class you will build on your strength, endurance, speed, power and agility with advanced exercises.
		Stretch Exercises: reformer with yoga postures Tempo: Slow	The perfect balance of strength and stretch. Learn how to blend Pilates principles into yoga postures to achieve proper form and alignment allowing for deeper stretches and enhanced muscle recovery. This class is slowed down to focus on breath and create a meditative quality which promotes mind/body relaxation and calm anxiety.
		Sculpt Exercises: Intermediate Tempo: Moderate	This class is amped up to give you a full body burn with a prime focus on stability, control and strength. Props, Cardio tramp and hand weights are added to regular reformer exercises to target multiple muscle groups within a specific exercise. This class is meant to be sweaty, building internal heat and increased heart rate.
